Busy month of May behind us with just over 683 passengers, a 6% increase compared to May last year.

23 airlines flew to 67 destinations, with London, Copenhagen, New York on the top with most passengers.

Familiar aircrafts were seen at the airfield back again, United from both Newark and Chicago, Eurowings back after a short break in April, from Dusseldorf and now also Stuttgart a new connection to KEF. One airline arrived for the first time, as WestJet landed in Keflavík with a full flight from Calgary, Canada. We are really excited to have them join our airlines that choose Keflavík Airport as a partner.

The departures of foreign guests were 155 thousand, which is a 2% decrease from May last year. Most departures in May among foreign guests were US citizens (27%) followed by German (8%), Polish (7%), British (6%), and Dutch citizens (5%).
